Khloé Kardashian Odom now has even more season to smile.

The E! star took to Twitter Friday to thank her cosmetic dentist, Dr. Kevin Sands, after she was fitted with Invisalign braces to straighten her teeth.

"Thank you @drkevinsands for being the best dentist ever! If only we could all be put to sleep like Lamar LOL maybe next time :)," Khloé posted on her micro-blogging page.

Although the reality star has seemingly perfect teeth, Dr. Sands says she "wanted a little tweaking" and explains how "Invisalign is a great way to straighten and perfect teeth without being too noticeable."

The Keeping Up With the Kardashians star recently covered Cosmopolitan U.K., telling the mag, "I'm confident in who I am...I like being curvy."

And now she has beautiful new teeth to go along with that bangin' bod!

Be sure to watch the new season of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, premiering June 2 at 9 p.m., only on E!
