A memorable dentist appointment left Kanye West with more than FourFiveSeconds of new perspectives.

And for the April 2015 issue of Paper magazine, the 37-year-old outspoken rapper recalled a life-changing experience in the dentist's chair telling the publication: 'One time I was at the dentist's office and I was given nitrous gas and I was vibing out.'

The husband of fellow Paper cover star Kim Kardashian confessed he gained a 'completely new attitude on everything' thanks to some laughing gas sedation.
